Spizza

Pizza from Spizza.

A true Singapore pizza lover is no stranger to Spizza's brand of tasty, thin crust pizzas (all named after girls), served in a casual and relaxed environment.

Spizza's charm lies in its authentic and consistently good fare – numerous visits over the course of a year will never failed to impress.

And, while many pizzerias tend to overwhelm their pies with too many types of toppings, Spizza keeps it simple with only a few ingredients that create surprisingly complex flavours.

Our favourite combinations include the Isabella (tomato, mozzarella, Parma ham and rucola salad) and the classic Juliana (tomato, mozzarella, ham and pineapple).
