

The Best of Chinatown: Ann Siang / Club / Erskine / Maxwell by I-S staff

Chinatown is a vibrant and diverse neighborhood in Singapore, known for its rich history and cultural heritage. From traditional Chinese architecture to modern shopping malls, there's something for everyone in this bustling district.

One of the highlights of Chinatown is its street life. The narrow lanes are filled with colorful buildings, street vendors, and a sense of community. It's a great place to explore the local culture and enjoy the sights and sounds of the city.

For those looking for a more relaxed experience, there are several parks and green spaces in Chinatown. These areas provide a peaceful retreat from the busy streets and offer a chance to enjoy the natural beauty of the city.

Chinatown is also home to a variety of restaurants and cafes, offering a wide range of dining options. From traditional Chinese cuisine to modern fusion dishes, there's a place for every palate.

SPIZZA
Senso's Spizza is Italian, right down to its wood-fired oven, imported cheeses and olive oils. This flagship, with its rustic fittings, has some of the best thin-crust pizzas in town.
